

The following are results from Students' Evaluation of their Site Supervisor at the end of their practicum experience (REH 6140 Counseling Practicum – Summer Semesters).

This assessment focuses on the student's perception of their site supervisor and their competency across the identified supervisory domains. Students rate their perception of their site supervisor on the items below using a Likert style scale of 1 – Poor to 10 – Excellent.

Results are used by the USU MRC Faculty to coordinate course instruction, curriculum changes, and adjustments to placements when necessary. The results are reviewed by the instructors at the end of the semester for considerations associated with internship placement as well as determining if continued collaboration with the site supervisor is appropriate. Results are also given to the USU MRC Program Coordinator by the instructor(s) for analysis and subsequent review in the annual Fall USU Rehabilitation Counseling team retreat.
